

SARARA

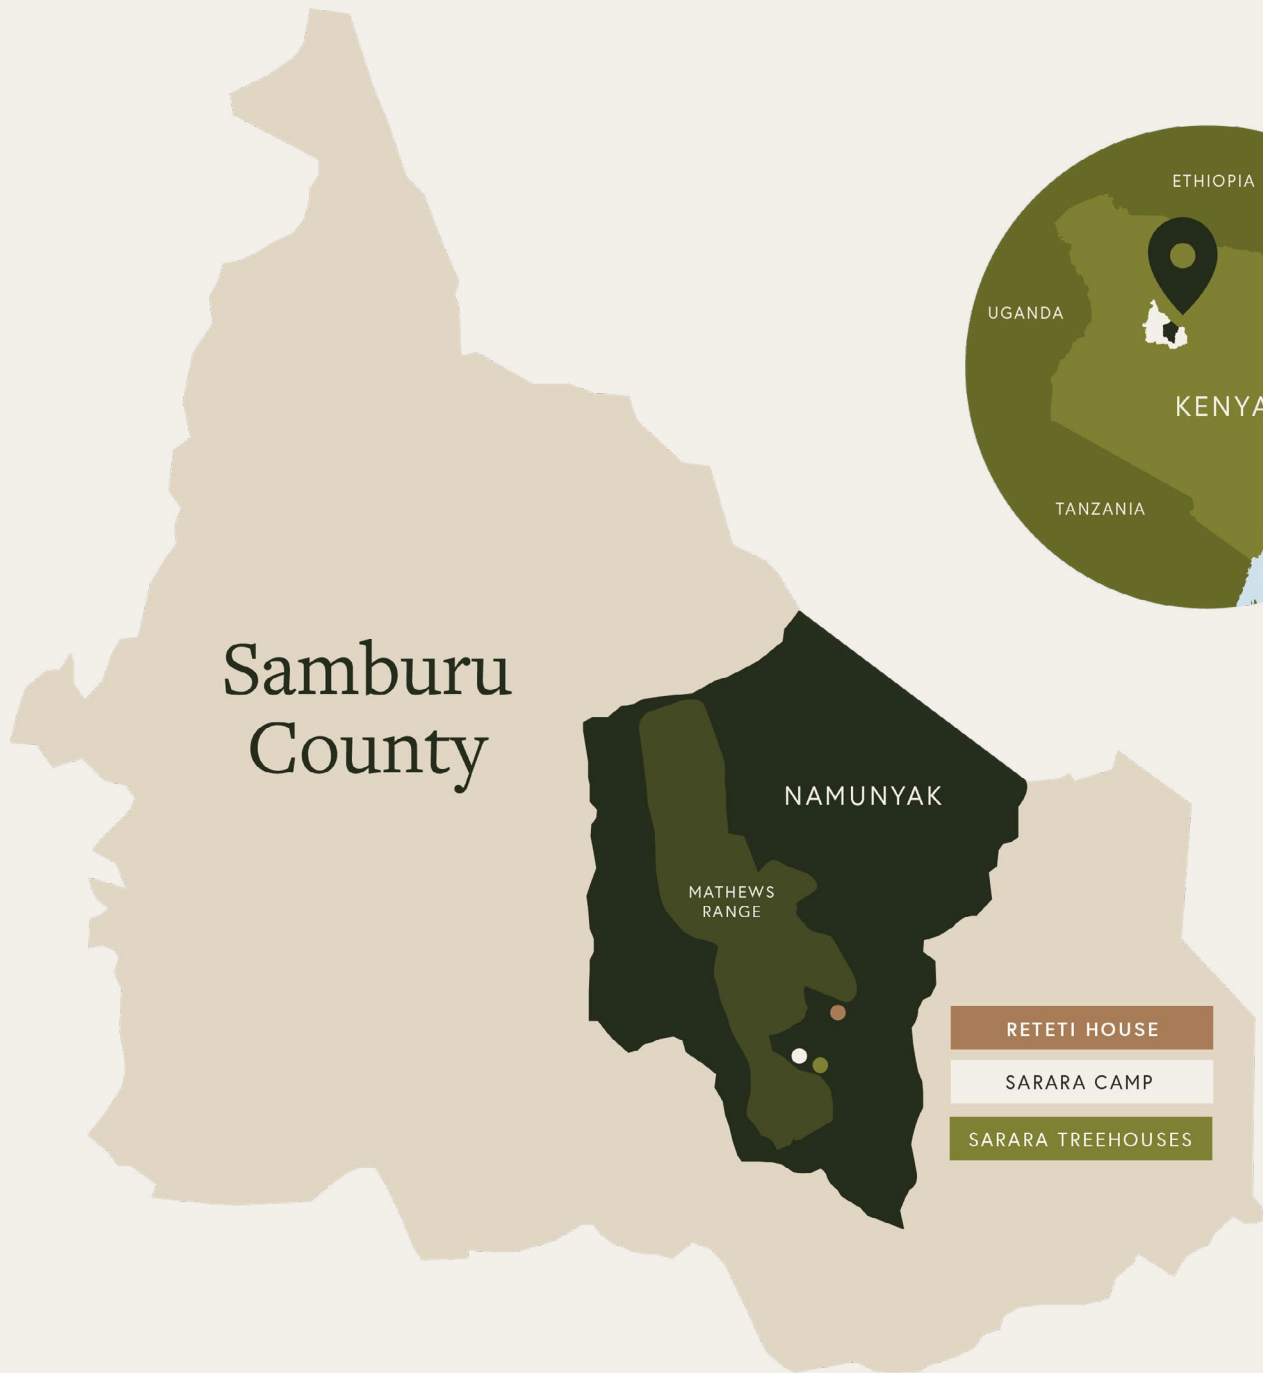

CAMP

We are dedicated to conserve a landscape where people and wildlife
flourish side by side
for generations to come.

Sarara is a unique conservation and ecotourism
brand that partners with indigenous communities to protect biodiversity and improve livelihoods.

Our three ecolodges lie within Namunyak Community Conservancy in Northern Kenya.

The lodges are designed as a platform to build cultural and environmental sustainability and proudly managed by the Samburu community.

Welcome to Sarara Camp

Perched on a rocky outcrop at the foot of the Mathews Range, Sarara Camp is set in the remote Namunyak Community Conservancy, which spans 850,000 acres of pristine wilderness.

Whilst retaining all the magic and grace of a traditional safari camp, Sarara Camp caters for every need of the modern day traveler.

Sarara Camp's six spacious and beautifully appointed en-suite tents offer uninterrupted views over the majestic Mathews Range.

Each tent is en-suite with solar heated outdoor showers. A butler-box allows for the discreet delivery of early morning tea, coffee and cookies.

Sarara Camp also has a two bedroom family unit, called Sarara House, which includes a beautiful plunge pool, private dining and its own sitting room.

Exceptional elephant encounters

Sarara House has become famous for its elephant, which are regular visitors to the house pool and offer guests incredibly up close and personal experiences as they come for their water.

The camp waterhole and footpaths are frequented by an array of wildlife, including elephant, reticulated giraffe, buffalo, kudu, impala, leopard and wild dog.

Sarara Camp is an all inclusive ecolodge

Sarara Camp is one of just three lodges in the 850,000-acre Namunyak Conservancy.

Sarara Treehouses

Nestled into a forest glade at the foot of Warges Peak, the Sarara Treehouses emerge from the ancient forest canopy.

Eight beautiful tents are raised up into the forest, allowing an array of wildlife including elephants and buffalo to roam the forest floor beneath you.

Each tent is en-suite, with solar heated outdoor showers looking into the forest.

SARARA TREEHOUSES

Reteti House

Reteti House is an exclusive and uniquely crafted ecolodge that blends naturally into the dramatic landscape of Namunyak Conservancy.

Four standalone rooms, each with a gorgeous outdoor shower and private deck, offers uninterrupted views over the conservancy.

A 10-minute walk from Reteti Elephant Sanctuary, Reteti House provides guests with a front-row seat to the extraordinary conservation work of Reteti.

Experience an extraordinary community and wildlife initiative during your stay

RETETI ELEPHANT SANCTUARY

Reteti is a Samburu owned and run sanctuary supported by Sarara. Situated among Kenya's second largest elephant population, the Sanctuary takes in orphaned and abandoned elephant calves with an aim to release them back into the wild herds adjoining Reteti. This is the result of a widely recognised and expanding grassroots movement of community-driven conservation across Northern Kenya; a movement that is growing new economies, transforming lives and conserving natural resources.
